

News of Much Interest
To Every Well-Dressed Woman

Sorosis Shoes At Cost Prices

The quality of Sorosis Shoes is so well known among fashionably dressed women, who demand beauty combined with service, that their qualities need no definition here. It behooves us, however, to urge all who would save from one-third to one-half on these shoes to purchase now, as we have been privileged to allow these reductions for a few days on low shoes only.

Women's Suede, Satin, and Velvet Colonials, Pumps, and Oxfords. Regularly $2.45. Sale price.....

Women's White Buckskin and Nu-Buck Colonials and pumps. Regularly $4. Sale price.....

Women's White Canvas Pumps, Colonials, and Oxfords. Regularly $3.50 and $4. Now.....

Women's Bronze Kid Colonial Pumps; welt sole. Regularly $5.00. Sale Price.....

Women's White Buckskin Button Boots. Regularly priced at $6 and $7. Now.....

Every Shoe Guaranteed Perfect.

Sorosis Shoe Company
1213 F Street Northwest

QUALITY ALWAYS THE SAME.

ELK GROVE BUTTER

Through years has maintained the highest quality. That's why it is so popular.
GOLDEN & CO.
922-928 La. Ave.
Wholesalers Only.

COMBINATION FAILS; GHOST KIDS NAVY YARD; SAFE DOOR IS MELTED

Night Shift, Comprising 400 Men,
Gets Excited When Cashier Says
"Nothing Doing."

Combination of the safe wouldn't work—no pay.
That's what happened at the navy yard yesterday. When the 400 men comprising the night shift of the navy yard applied in the afternoon at the cashier's and demanded that the ghost put in an appearance, they were met with the unusual reply that there was "nothing doing"—at least for a while. The men were rather surprised, and began to think that Uncle Sam's bank had "gusted."

Later the news spread among the men of the day shift, who were to be paid off this morning, and caused much alarm. All kinds of rumors flew around, until it was at last found out that the combination of the safe would not work.

At 4 o'clock some men from the blacksmith shop went to the office and melted the refractory door, and within half an hour the necessary money was liberated, to find its way into many pockets.

WOMAN AVIATOR KILLED.

Brussels, July 22.—Mrs. Cayat de Chastell, a famous woman aviator, fell 1,000 feet and was dashed to death on the ground within twenty feet of her husband today when the automatic parachute in which she attempted a descent from Aviator Champel's biplane failed to work.

Three thousand people saw the accident. Mrs. Cayat had invented the automatic detaching device of the parachute which caused her death.

This is for You!

If You Suffer From Hot flashes or dizziness, fainting spells, hysteria, headache, bearing down pains, nervousness—all are symptoms of irregularity and female disturbances and are not beyond relief.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

is directed to the real cause and promptly removes the disease, suppresses the pain and nervous symptoms and thereby brings comfort in the place of prolonged misery.

It has been sold by druggists for over 40 years, in fluid form, at $1.00 per bottle, giving general satisfaction. It can now be had in sugar coated tablet form, as modified by E. V. Pierce, M. D. Sold by all medicine dealers or trial box by mail on receipt of 50c in stamps.

Every sick woman may consult us by letter, absolutely without charge. Write without fear to Faculty of the Invalid's Home, Dr. E. V. PIERCE, President, 635 Main Street, Buffalo, New York.

DR. PIERCE'S PLEASANT PILLS REGULATE THE LIVER

A Step Out Of the Beaten Path

How the market's chosen housewife can save time and money by buying her groceries at a special price.

A real old-time Southern cook presides in the kitchen—you'll like her dishes and come back for more.

Turn the Avenue at Seventeenth street and look for an old-fashioned red brick house, the kitchen of which is always open, and a warm welcome awaits you.

On account of its central location, being only two blocks from the White House, the Corcoran Art Gallery, the D. A. R. Building, and the Belmont Theatre, it is a very convenient place for breakfast, luncheon, or dinner for ladies and gentlemen residing in the city, or for those who are in the city for business or pleasure. Conveniently accessible from the shopping districts and the Union Railway Station.

Prices are quite moderate—come in today.

TWO OF TOWN'S 6 COPS ARE HELD AS BURGLARS

Third Policeman Also "Wanted" After Latest Victim of Robbery Series Finds Clue.

$1,000 LOOT HID IN HEN COOP

Rockville Centre, N. Y., July 22.—Two of the six policemen of this village are in Minnola jail charged with burglary in the first degree and papers are being prepared to be sent to Holyoke for the arrest of a third policeman, who is on vacation.

In the last couple of years there have been many robberies in this section. Summer residents going away for the winter would report their houses vacant to the police. In the spring they found them stripped of almost everything portable. Two months ago the store of A. Huser was entered and $1,000 worth of stock taken. The store is opposite police headquarters.

A month ago Mr. Huser saw a negro woman on the street wearing a silk coat he said was stolen from his store. The woman surrendered the coat and said she suspected something was wrong when she bought it, because she paid so little for it. Huser went to Village Trustee Edwin Wallace, and the latter, acting on information he had obtained from negroes, arrested Policeman Amos Vertizan.

He denied he had been concerned in robberies, but weakened after Mr. Wallace and others returned with trunks they had found in his chicken coop. From it they extracted about $1,000 worth of stuff, practically all of which Mr. Huser identified as being stolen from his place. Then Captain of Police Kirchner arrested Henry Wickes, another policeman. The third is Rudolf Petersen. A warrant for his arrest has been sworn out.

MARSHALL TO ADDRESS SCOUTS.

Vice President Marshall will address the District Boy Scouts tonight at 7 o'clock on the lawn of Col. Arthur E. Randall's house at Randall Highlands. Other speakers will be A. C. Moses and Robert Wilkins.

NIECE OF CLYDE FITCH, DYING, SEEKS DIVORCE

At Demaree, claimed by Roseman Bulger as the best cartoonist who ever pitched for the Giants, has been discovered in a new and interesting diamond stunt.

Many big league pitchers use him to help them get a firmer grip on the ball, but they do it in a devious behind the back fashion. Veau Gregg, for instance, keeps the rosin in his pocket and then uses it to rub his hands with an abstracted sort of a manner as if he were looking for his handkerchief or eating tobacco. But Demaree knows that rosin is an absorbent substance produced by the oxidation of volatile oils secreted in plants and that it is nothing to be ashamed of, and so he lets his supply openly and proudly on the left side of his trousers. He has a little bag of the rosin pinned on to the trouser leg and when he feels the need of it reaches for it, a little on his hands and grips the ball.

Rupert Hughes, the novelist, has been very busy recently, editing a new underground paper, a newspaper correspondent who signs himself "Beet."

It seems that recently some one in reviewing Hughes' latest book, "What Will People Say?" remarked that Hughes had intended to have the book dramatized later on.

"Beet" E. E. Hughes in a series of letters takes Hughes to task on the point that "What Will People Say?" is a novelization of a play "The Triangle" which Hughes wrote several years ago. The play had a sad, short life after being slammed on the stage without a single out of town performance. Writes Hughes: "Should I have set a preface in front of the novel, like a meek placard, or should I have added a postscript? Whom did I harm by permitting him to read the novel, in ignorance of the fact that certain portions of it were once played for three weeks at a theater since demolished?"

Detectives Connelly and Kohnen were snatching down East Broadway when a chair came sailing out of a window and dropped at their feet. They stopped a minute and then heard sounds like the blending of a Mexican battle with a Kansas cyclone, seasoned with a dash of Donnybrook sauce. They rushed up to the fifth floor of the building and found 80 men fighting like cats and dogs. The detectives took one look and called the reserves. While waiting they tapped nearest them over the heads for the sake of quietude. It was a meeting of a baker's union and some one had yelled "Spies are in the house." The fight was on.

HICKERS AT TAKOMA PARK.

Under the leadership of Frank C. Merritt, the Wanderlusters last night marched to Takoma Park and environs. This hike, although one of the shortest ever taken by them, was enjoyed immensely. The Sunday hike probably will lead to Difficult Run or Great Falls.

LOGIC ENDS IN DEATH OF FOUR

Trolley Car Crashes Into a Freight on Way Back from Church Fete.

FORTY-ONE IN HOSPITALS

Heavy Car Ploughs Through Wooden Excursion Coach, Mangling Youthful Victims.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Bridgeport, Conn., July 22.—Four children were killed, and forty girls and boys lie in Bridgeport and Norwalk hospitals more or less seriously injured, as a result of a head-on collision of a trolley car with a "beer car" on the Connecticut Company's trolley line six miles out of this city tonight. The dead are: George R. Fuller, thirteen, Bridgeport; Fred Fisher, eleven, Bridgeport; Frank Nagay, eight, East Bridgeport; Unidentified girl, aged nineteen, stout with Auburn hair.

Harold Navin, motorman of the excursion car, is believed to be dying in Norwalk Hospital, and Clark, a boy of twelve, is suffering from a fractured skull.

The cars came together at 5:45 o'clock tonight at Nash's Curve, three miles out of Norwalk. There were fifty children and their parents aboard the excursion car returning home from a day's outing given by the Point Union Mission, of Bridgeport.

Cars Crash Head-on.
Navin, the motorman of the car, rounded the curve at high speed because a second car, also filled with excursionists, was close behind him. As the car reached the sharp twist at its lower end, the freight trolley car hove in sight, also rounding rapidly. This car was filled with a cargo of beer.

Before either motorman could clamp down brakes the two cars had crashed head-on. The heavy beer car flung itself seven feet through the splintering wooden framework of the excursion car, hurling children twenty feet away or grinding them beneath its wheels.

It happened that a half dozen automobile parties were within sight of the wreck. Hurrying to the scene, the men and women leaped from their automobiles, caught up the dead or injured, and placing them aboard their machines rushed them to the hospitals at Bridgeport and Norwalk.

The identified dead later were taken to their homes.

ON THE GREAT WHITE WAY.

By O. G. McIntyre.
New York, July 22.—New York has at last become greatly agitated about the case of Willie Winger. It has been discovered that the men sometimes work eighteen hours a day without extra pay and only receive $12 a week. Most of them, it has been found, are men with large families and supporting a large family in New York on $12—or even $16—a week is no trifling task. More than 50 per cent of the men are ruptured and need treatment. The nature of their work makes the afflicted suffer more than they would in almost any other line of work. The men are now organized and several experts to map out a campaign which will result in less work and more pay for the street workers.

Editor William Randolph Hearst has lost his fight to prevent the New York Central from disturbing his sleep. Hearst has an apartment in a palatial Riverside Drive apartment house, which he owns. Eighty-sixth street and Madison avenue, he secured an injunction restraining the railroad from using the tracks from Seventy-second street to Ninety-sixth street along the Hudson river for the operation and storage of its freight cars. Hearst complained of the smoke and odors and said the noise not only kept him awake but kept his wife awake. He also claimed that property along Riverside Drive has been damaged. The appellate division of the Supreme Court has now refused to continue the injunction and Hearst must either put up with the nuisance or move.

Al Demaree, claimed by Roseman Bulger as the best cartoonist who ever pitched for the Giants, has been discovered in a new and interesting diamond stunt. Many big league pitchers use him to help them get a firmer grip on the ball, but they do it in a devious behind the back fashion. Veau Gregg, for instance, keeps the rosin in his pocket and then uses it to rub his hands with an abstracted sort of a manner as if he were looking for his handkerchief or eating tobacco. But Demaree knows that rosin is an absorbent substance produced by the oxidation of volatile oils secreted in plants and that it is nothing to be ashamed of, and so he lets his supply openly and proudly on the left side of his trousers. He has a little bag of the rosin pinned on to the trouser leg and when he feels the need of it reaches for it, a little on his hands and grips the ball.

Rupert Hughes, the novelist, has been very busy recently, editing a new underground paper, a newspaper correspondent who signs himself "Beet."

It seems that recently some one in reviewing Hughes' latest book, "What Will People Say?" remarked that Hughes had intended to have the book dramatized later on.

"Beet" E. E. Hughes in a series of letters takes Hughes to task on the point that "What Will People Say?" is a novelization of a play "The Triangle" which Hughes wrote several years ago. The play had a sad, short life after being slammed on the stage without a single out of town performance. Writes Hughes: "Should I have set a preface in front of the novel, like a meek placard, or should I have added a postscript? Whom did I harm by permitting him to read the novel, in ignorance of the fact that certain portions of it were once played for three weeks at a theater since demolished?"

Detectives Connelly and Kohnen were snatching down East Broadway when a chair came sailing out of a window and dropped at their feet. They stopped a minute and then heard sounds like the blending of a Mexican battle with a Kansas cyclone, seasoned with a dash of Donnybrook sauce. They rushed up to the fifth floor of the building and found 80 men fighting like cats and dogs. The detectives took one look and called the reserves. While waiting they tapped nearest them over the heads for the sake of quietude. It was a meeting of a baker's union and some one had yelled "Spies are in the house." The fight was on.

Under the leadership of Frank C. Merritt, the Wanderlusters last night marched to Takoma Park and environs. This hike, although one of the shortest ever taken by them, was enjoyed immensely. The Sunday hike probably will lead to Difficult Run or Great Falls.

NEW HAVEN WILL FIGHT TO FINISH

To Resist U. S. Suit to Force Surrender of B. & M. Control.

PACT VIOLATION DENIED

Hustis Issues Statement Defending Refusal to Meet Massachusetts Legislature's Demand.

New York, July 22.—New Haven Railroad directors will fight to a finish the effort of the United States government to force them to part with control of the Boston and Maine stock on the basis demanded by the Massachusetts legislature—namely, that each certificate shall bear a stamp setting forth that the State has the right at any time to buy the stock at the fair value thereof in accordance with law.

There will be no effort on the part of the New Haven directors, it is said, to prevent the government from going ahead with the dissolution suit ordered by President Wilson, and there is no intention of negotiations for a "consent decree," which would prevent long litigation.

President James H. Hustis, after an all day conference with attorneys of the road, late tonight issued a statement defending the action of the directors and denying that they had agreed to change their agreement with the government. It follows:

"The directors of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company, and the directors of the Boston and Maine Railroad Company, desire to make their position entirely clear. They have never refused, but on the contrary have always been willing and anxious to carry out the agreement with the Attorney General made on March 21, 1914, approved by the stockholders on April 21, and sanctioned by the Attorney General. The agreement was framed to accomplish two objects: first, the sale of certain properties owned by the company, which the Attorney General demanded, and, second, the right to take place at any time and on such terms as would insure a return at a fair price.

"Will Defeat Object.
This last object in the judgment of the directors will be defeated if the sale of the Boston and Maine stock is made subject to the condition imposed by the legislature of Massachusetts, and, therefore, they have refused to agree to such a condition. They have not refused to carry out any agreement which they have made, but they have refused to agree to a change of agreement, as the change would entail on the company a very large pecuniary loss and at the same time increase enormously the cost of reorganizing the Boston and Maine Railroad.

"As evidence of the good faith of the directors a representative committee, consisting of President Hustis, Mr. Cuyler and Dr. Hadley, accompanied by Moorfield Storey, counsel in the proceedings, waited on the attorney general on July 20 and offered to carry through the settlement in all respects according to the agreement and, further, in order to meet the difficulty which had been created by the Massachusetts legislature, the committee offered to place under the control of the Boston and Maine Railroad absolutely the Boston and Maine railroad until either the Massachusetts legislature passed the necessary legislation or the Federal court in proceedings decided by the Federal court in proceedings which the company offered to expedite matters in every possible way.

Mellen Grows Sarcastic.
Boston, July 22.—"I presume the directors will have to sit around for a while," said Charles S. Mellen in an interview tonight. "So long as political demagogues are in power, they will not let a railroad go without a price tag and a list of charges and the press continues to print its claptrap, just as long will a superficial public believe that the former was the only reason for the really guilty, even before they are tried."

"I want to be left alone," he continued, "but it looks as if I shall be kept pretty busy for a while. I am going to be indicted for all sorts of imaginary crimes. Well, anyhow, it will serve to give me mental exercise and I never was much of a hand at being idle."

REBELS TAKE TWO CITIES.

Mexican constitutionalists last night received from Gen. Carranza a dispatch relating that the constitutionalists had occupied two important towns formerly federalist strongholds—Aguas Calientes and San Luis Potosi. Although the dispatch did not announce what forces had captured Aguas Calientes, the belief of the constitutional agency here is that it was by a column under the command of Gen. Natera from Zacatecas. The capture of San Luis Potosi was effected by a column under the command of Gen. Gonzalez, who is fighting around Tampico a month ago.

Apparently there was no resistance offered by the federal forces, and it is asserted that the capture of the towns above named preceded the investment by several days.

STRIKERS TRY NEW PLAN.

St. John, N. B., July 22.—All the street car employees struck today because a conference with the city council failed to reach an agreement. The strikers inaugurated a "bus system." The traction company owns the lighting and power plants and employees are expected to strike here, also. Minister of Labor Crothers has been summoned to help in ending the strike.

WEE WILLIE WONDERS

He heard Uncle Dan say he used to be a good cow puncher.
Gee Whillikins! That wasn't nice to punch the poor bossy cows—they never hurt anybody.

Some newfangled scarecrow you have in the fields, Hiram!"

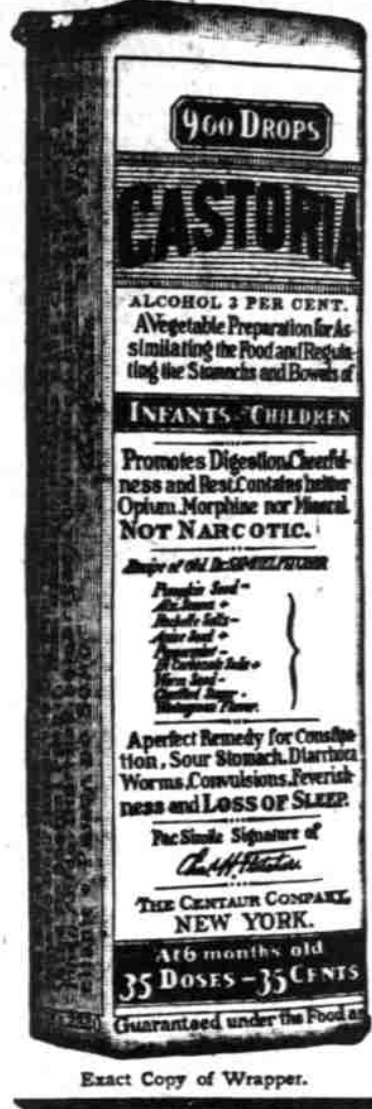

"No, that's my boy. He insists on wearing his cap and gown while hoeing potatoes. He was graduated from an agricultural college, you know."—Courier Journal.

A Great Responsibility.

THE responsibility attached to the preparing of a remedy for infants and children is undoubtedly greater than that imposed upon the manufacturer of remedies for adults whose system is sufficiently strong to counteract, for a time at least, any injurious drug. It is well to observe that Castoria is prepared today, as it has been for the past 40 years, under the personal supervision of Mr. Chas. H. Fletcher.

What have makers of imitations and substitutes at stake? What are their responsibilities? To whom are they answerable? They spring up today, scatter their nefarious wares broadcast, and disappear tomorrow.

Could each mother see the painstaking care with which the prescription for Fletcher's Castoria is prepared: could they read the innumerable testimonials from grateful mothers, they would never listen to the subtle pleadings and false arguments of those who would offer an imitation of, or substitute for, the tried and true Fletcher's Castoria.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Extracts from Letters by Grateful Parents to Chas. H. Fletcher.

G. J. English, of Springfield, Mass., says: "It was your Castoria that cured my child."

Mrs. Mary McGinnis, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "We have given our baby your Castoria ever since she was born, and we recommend it to all mothers."

N. E. Calmes, of Marion, Ky., says: "You have the best medicine in the world, as I have given your Castoria to my babies from first to last."

Mrs. Albert Uginsky, of Lawrenceburg, Ind., says: "As I have had your Castoria in use for nearly three years, I am pleased to say it is just as represented. My children are both well and happy—thanks to Castoria."

R. P. Stockton, of New Orleans, La., says: "We began giving your Castoria to our baby when he was eight days old and have kept it up ever since, never having had to give any other medicine."

Mrs. Dolph Hornbuckle, of Colorado Springs, Colo., says: "We commenced giving your Castoria to our baby when she was four weeks old. She is now 18 months old and weighs 184 pounds. Every remark: 'What a healthy looking baby.' We give Castoria credit for it."

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS BEARS

the Signature
of
Chas. H. Fletcher.

NATION RUNNING SHORT OF BEEF, SAYS EXPERT

High Cost of Meat Result of Actual Shortage of Production, J. M. Pickens Reports.

TIME TO ACT FIGURES SHOW

Shortage in production is given as the cause of the present high price of beef by James M. Pickens, expert in the Bureau of Animal Industry of the Department of Agriculture, in a report issued yesterday.

"The high cost of meat is a serious reality, and it is now obvious that the rise in price is the result of an actual shortage in production."

This is the first time that the shortage in his report, which continues:

"This condition is reflected in the per capita consumption of meat in the United States, which is estimated to have fallen off 10 pounds in four years, or 182 pounds in 1900 to 152 pounds in 1913. It is evident the country is facing an era of short production of meat, and that some constructive means must be adopted if the American appetite for this class of food is to be supplied. The decline in beef production is especially marked."

There were only 6,724,107 cattle slaughtered in the last fiscal year, while the yearly average for the preceding seven years is 7,480,385. Calves slaughtered in the last fiscal year numbered only 1,814,804, while the yearly average previously is 2,094,614.

There were increases in the last fiscal year over the yearly average for the seven preceding years in the number of sheep and swine slaughtered as follows: Sheep slaughtered in last fiscal year 14,863,334, as compared with a yearly average of 11,967,521; swine slaughtered in last fiscal year 23,280,715, as compared with a yearly average of 22,483,737.

FLOG GAY LOTHARIO.

Montreal, July 22.—After he confessed that charges made against him by a girl were true, George Becker, of Lanark, Pa., was flogged by indignant citizens of St. Lambert. Then he was put on a train for New York and warned never to return.

RESERVE BANK ELECTIONS.

Election of the following reserve bank directors was announced yesterday: District No. 4, Class A, Group 1, Robert Wardrop, of Pittsburgh; District No. 4, Class B, Group 1, Thomas A. Combs, of Lexington, Ky.; District No. 4, Class B, Group 1, P. H. Saunders, of New Orleans.

Delay Advisable.

Grateful Patient.—By the way, I should be glad if you would send in your bill soon.

Eminent Physician.—Never mind about that, my dear madam; you must get quite strong first.—Philadelphia Record.

Times' Changes.

The old gentleman's wife was getting into a carriage, and he neglected to assist her.

"You are not so gallant, John, as when you were a boy," she exclaimed, in gentle rebuke.

"No," was his ready response, "and you are not so buoyant as when you were a girl!"—Sacred Heart Review.

College Gear.

"Some newfangled scarecrow you have in the fields, Hiram!"

"No, that's my boy. He insists on wearing his cap and gown while hoeing potatoes. He was graduated from an agricultural college, you know."—Courier Journal.

MADDOO'S SON IN TROUBLE.

Fought Policeman, Is the Charge Against Him and Friend.

Portsmouth, N. H., July 22.—William G. Maddoo, nineteen years of age, of New York, son of Secretary of the Treasury, was arrested here, charged with interfering with an officer.

Under arrest with him is Jesse Hoyt, of New York. The latter is charged with violating local police regulations.

The two young men were eating in a cafe on High street. Patrolman O. W. Philbrick entered and ordered Hoyt to knock up his helmet. According to the officer, Hoyt started to comply, when young Maddoo rose from his seat and began a controversy, and then struck Philbrick. Hoyt then took part in the scrimmage. Both were arrested.

At the police station, according to the police, Maddoo again struck the officer, knocking off his helmet.

After the pair had gotten into telephone communication with friends at York Beach, a man in an automobile brought to the station house a check for $200, signed by a Mrs. Doolittle, on which they were released, pending their appearance in court here later.

MILITANT UPROAR IN COURT.

Belfast, Ireland, July 22.—A crowd of militant suffragettes today created a tumult in the Assize Court and its vicinity, when Miss Dorothy Evans, an official of the Belfast branch of the Women's Social and Political Union, was brought up for trial on the charge of having in her possession explosives for the purpose of committing a felony. Miss Evans had been arrested in the house of the Lord Mayor of Belfast.

The disturbance caused by the suffragettes, who broke windows and savagely assaulted the police, was so great that proceedings had to be suspended for a time.

THIS COUPON

And 98c

Entitles bearer to the most popular book of the moment.

Theodore Roosevelt
AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY.
(Regular price, $2.50).

The book, handsomely bound in cloth, with bold stamped decorated portrait cover, covers of 425 large pages and contains 53 illustrations. MAIL ORDERS—Add 17c for postage and handling.

THE WASHINGTON HERALD, Washington, D. C.

The Roosevelt book may also be obtained for 98 cents and coupons at the following places:

Dunbar & Co., 9th and G Sts. N. W. W. B. Hottel, 1705 Pa. ave. N. W. Roland Wallace, 228 10th St. W. E. J. Kirtle, 14th and Harvard. W. O. Hammett, 153 B St. E.